Advisory: Sen. Zenzinger to host town hall discussion on water in Colorado

ARVADA -- State Sen. Rachel Zenzinger will host her next town hall meeting on Saturday, July 19th, 2014, from 10:30 a.m.-noon at the Standley Lake Library in Arvada. Sen. Zenzinger will be joined by Chris Piper and Greg Fisher of Denver Water for a presentation and discussion on water issues affecting Colorado.

Sen. Zenzinger has regular town hall meetings as a way to communicate with Coloradans in her community. She is joined by Rep. Kraft-Tharp for a town hall meeting on the third Saturday of every month. During each meeting, the public is welcome to ask the Senator questions and give input. All of Sen. Zenzinger's town halls are free, nonpartisan, and open to the public.

ABOUT SEN ZENZINGER:

Sen. Rachel Zenzinger serves Colorado Senate District 19, which spans most of Arvada and the Jefferson County portion of Westminster. She was appointed to her seat and sworn into office on Dec. 13, 2013. She serves on the Senate Education Committee and Senate Local Government Committee, and she is a Senate advisor to the Colorado Commission on Higher Education. Her professional background is in education, and she was coordinator of the Regis University Master of Arts in Education program. She spent four years working for Catholic Charities of Denver.
